

A detailed map of Scotland illustrating the distribution of the timber industry. The map uses color-coded dots to represent different types of facilities: red dots for major sawmills, blue dots for panel mills, purple dots for paper mills, and green dots for major biomass consumers. Numerous companies are labeled across the country, including John Gordon, J.D.G. Munro, Norbord Ltd, BSW Timber, James Jones, Cordiners Sawmills, Pallet Logistics, Perthshire Timber, Cally Sawmill, James Callander, Windymains Sawmill, BSW Timber, UPM Caledonian Paper, Adam Wilson, Egger (UK) Ltd, Carronbridge Sawmills Ltd, Forest Sawmills Ltd, James Jones, A &amp; G King, Kerr Timber Products, BSW Timber, Taylormade Timber Products Ltd, E.ON UK, and RWE. The map also shows geographical features like the Grampian Mountains, various rivers, and coastal areas. A legend in the bottom left corner explains the dot colors. At the very bottom, there is a reproduction permission notice from Ordnance Survey.
